

Proximity Technologies is committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring the security of your personal information. This Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard the personal data we gather from individuals who interact with our consultant and contractor recruitment agency. Please read this policy carefully to understand our practices regarding your personal information.

Information We Collect

We may collect the following types of personal information:

- 1.1. Personal Identifiable Information (PII): This may include your full name, address, contact details (phone number, email address), date of birth, national insurance number, passport details, and other relevant identification information.
- 1.2. Professional and Employment Information: This includes your professional qualifications, educational background, employment history, references, and any other information relevant to the recruitment process.
- 1.3. Financial Information: If applicable, we may collect bank account details or other financial information necessary for payroll and payment purposes.
- 1.4. Special Categories of Personal Data: In certain cases, we may collect sensitive personal data, such as health information, to ensure suitability for specific healthcare roles and to comply with legal requirements.

How We Collect Information

We collect personal information through various means, including:

- 2.1. Directly from You: We may collect information directly from you when you provide it to us through our website, email, telephone, or in-person communication.
- 2.2. From Third Parties: We may collect information from third parties, such as educational institutions, previous employers, background check providers, and professional references.

Use of Information

We use the collected information for the following purposes:

- 3.1. Recruitment and Employment: We use your personal information to assess your suitability for healthcare job placements, facilitate the recruitment process, verify qualifications, and communicate with you regarding potential employment opportunities.

3.2. Compliance with Legal Obligations: We may process personal data to comply with legal and regulatory requirements, including verifying eligibility to work in the UK, conducting background checks, and ensuring compliance with relevant employment laws.

3.3. Payroll and Payment Processing: If you are engaged as a consultant or contract worker through our agency, we may use your financial information to process payments, provide payslips, and fulfil other related financial obligations.

3.4. Communication and Support: We may use your contact details to communicate with you, provide updates on job opportunities, respond to inquiries, and offer customer support.

Sharing and Disclosure of Information

We may disclose your personal information in the following circumstances:

4.1. Clients and Service Providers: We may share relevant information with clients and service providers seeking consultants and staff to facilitate the recruitment and employment process.

4.2. Third-Party Service Providers: We may engage trusted third-party service providers to assist us with various functions, such as payroll processing, background checks, IT infrastructure, and customer support. These providers are bound by confidentiality obligations and can only use personal data for the agreed purposes.

4.3. Legal Requirements: We may disclose personal information if required by law, regulation, court order, or government request, or to protect the rights, property, or safety of Proximity Technologies, its employees, or others.

Data Retention

We will retain your personal information only for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy or as required by law. We will securely dispose of personal data when it is no longer needed, ensuring compliance with data protection regulations.

Data Security

We are committed to protecting your personal information and have implemented appropriate security measures to safeguard it from unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction.

We regularly review and update our security practices to maintain a high level of data protection. The Proximity Group Ltd, Company Reg 12637165, info@proxtech.co.uk, +42 (020 3966 9700).
